

Dear children,

We hope you've had a good week and have learned a lot through all your home learning activities. We know you have been working very hard, independently or with siblings or adult support. We just want to remind you how proud we are of you for all the effort you are making. So a very well done to you all so far!

Please read the comic strip below to remind yourselves of important information ☺

As with last week, here is another poem by Roald Dahl. This is the beginning of his version of the well know children's story 'Goldilocks and the three bears' in poetry form:

'Goldilocks and the three bears'

This famous wicked little tale
Should never have been put on sale.
It is a mystery to me
Why loving parents cannot see
That this is actually a book
About a brazen little crook.
Had I the chance I wouldn't fail
To clap young Goldilocks in jail.
Now just imagine how you'd feel
If you had cooked a lovely meal,
Delicious porridge, steaming hot,
Fresh coffee in the coffee-pot,
With maybe toast and marmalade,
The table beautifully laid....

You can practise your handwriting using this verse. Don't forget correct letter formation and joining the letters.
